Headquartered in Houston, Texas, Silver Eagle Distributors is the number one beer distributor in the Houston metropolitan area, the nation's largest distributor of Anheuser-Busch products, and one of the largest Grupo Modelo distributors in the country.

Silver Eagle is privately owned and has close to 1,300 employees, including 860 in the Houston metropolitan area. The company serves more than 13,000 accounts and distributes approximately 46 million cases annually throughout 16 counties in Texas that include the metropolitan areas of Houston and San Antonio. Silver Eagle operates five distribution centers in Houston, Cypress, Conroe, Rosenberg and San Antonio, as well as two depots in Carrizo Springs and Del Rio, Texas.

Silver Eagle's large portfolio includes more than 450 different brands totaling close to 1,000 packages, including domestic, import and craft beers, flavored beverages, energy drinks and bottled water. The company's portfolio also includes local Houston craft brands from Saint Arnold Brewing Company and Karbach Brewing Co.

John L. Nau, III, the President and CEO of Silver Eagle Distributors since 1987, has led the company's growth from 200 to 1,300 employees. Through solid leadership, clever marketing strategies and excellent customer service, the company's market share has more than doubled in 25 years to a record high of 68 percent.

The Silver Eagle commitment to excellence is evident in all aspects of its business and in its corporate culture. A committed corporate partner to the communities it serves, Silver Eagle supports more than 750 different charitable organizations and events throughout its territories. The company also works collectively with Anheuser-Busch to develop and implement alcohol awareness and education programs that promote responsible drinking.

Silver Eagle is a proud partner of the Houston-Galveston Area Council's (HGAC) Clean Vehicles/Clean Air campaign, and to date has converted more than 75 percent of its fleet to clean diesel technology. The company is recognized as a Clean Air leader and Clean Fleets award winner by HGAC and the Alternative Fuel Vehicle Institute, and is also a partner in the Environmental Protection Agency's 'Blue Skyways Collaborative.' Silver Eagle believes in doing what's right.

Silver Eagle's record of success is the direct result of dedicated employees providing quality products and outstanding customer service. ■
