RE/MAX 1st Source is a professional office of real estate leaders and experts in many fields, characterized by their energy and steady desire to make a positive change within their local communities.

The RE/MAX system is the #1 consumer real estate brand that boasts the largest network and greatest global coverage in real estate through its franchisee-owned and -operated offices all around the world. As a proud part of that successful system, RE/MAX 1st Source is dedicated to providing buyers and sellers with quality services for a smooth transaction when buying, selling or leasing residential or commercial properties.

RE/MAX 1st Source first opened its doors in 1997, and in 2014 was ranked in the Top 1,000 real estate offices in the nation, including all real estate brands. Throughout the years, many talented agents and top producers have joined our office and have been recognized and awarded with many honors, and our agents proudly compliment the office and stand by the vision to help serve the community together.

RE/MAX 1st Source is known for being a diversified and multilingual group of real estate experts. Our agents are also educated in finance, sales, law, marketing and other industries that help support our clients and the community.

Apart from being the modern-day real estate leader, RE/MAX 1st Source is also a Miracle Office supporting the Children's Miracle Network at the Texas Children's Hospital. We are a community-minded organization supporting many local and national causes, such as Susan G. Komen; Habitat for Humanity; Texas Community Referral Network, which supports local businesses; Toys for Tots and our local children's hospital units; and the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce, just to name a few.

Our office is open seven days a week to help serve our community and to help meet your scheduling needs. Whether you're a first-time home buyer, trying to find the right land plot to build your dream home or looking to relocate or retire for the next chapter of your family, our expert agents are here to assist you with all of your real estate needs.
